EDITORIALS

Tonight the class of 1920 hands the Oracle over to our successors. Although we have been unable to publish many editions during the year owing to the high cost of paper and the difficulty in securing a printer at any price, to do the work. However, we have tried to repay you by this edition and have spent more than the usual amount of money on this issue.

In looking back over our past four years, we can see how we erred and how many faults could be corrected. We have not always appreciate our school and now on leaving it we regret that we did not make more of our opportunities. For us there have been many distracting influences, some of them connected with the war, which have drawn our interest away in a measure from school. The opportunities for working at good wages afternoons and evenings have also had their effect in linking us with the outside world to the detriment of school work. We trust that for those who are to remain in school there will be fewer distractions than in our case.

During the past year many interesting debates have been held in the English Classes. These debates have been entered joyfully by each student as they were concerning topics of the day. In our debates each pupil wishes to defeat his opponent which adds to the interest in the exercise. Participation in a debate enables the pupils to get up in front of his class and talk. Many people find themselves at a loss when facing an audience. School debates tend to overcome this weakness and give a preparation for public speaking which is very valuable.

ROSELLA ANDERSON

Born in South Weymouth, Mass., May 29, 1903. Graduate of the Margaret Fuller and Dellaway Grammar School. Violinist in the S. H. S. orchestra. Sub in the basket-ball team. Has been in the cast of two plays—"The Spy" and "The Hoodooed Coon." She is noted for being "almost" late and her favorite pastime is answering the telephone.

MILDRED BAILEY

"Millie"

Born in Randolph, Mass., October 6, 1902. Graduate of Belcher Grammar School. Plays the piano and has been in Minstrel shows. Her chief occupation in school is doing the heavy looking on.

FRANCIS NORTON BELCHER

Born in Randolph, Mass., May 1904. Graduate of Prescott Grammar School. As "Gideon Blair" in "The Hoodooed Coon" you never would have suspected him of being at the high school age. We trust he will not become such a crafty old man in real life. He is noted for application and should be successful in whatever he undertakes.

ARTHUR JOHN CRIMMINS

"Grandpa"

Born in Randolph, Mass., January 23, 1903. Graduate of the Belcher Grammar School. Plays Cornet in S. H. S. orchestra. He is noted for speed and his favorite past time is coming back afternoons.

DANIEL GIBBONS DONOVAN

"Dan"

Born in Randolph, Mass., October 18, 1903. Graduate of the Prescott Grammar School. He plays the cornet in S. H. S. orchestra and also contributes his efforts to the baseball team. His favorite pastime is selling pie and he is chiefly occupied in school hours with incoming mail.

MAURICE BENSON ELLIOTT

Born in Randolph, Mass., December 27, 1902. Graduate of the Prescott Grammar School. Plays the piano and violin and is noted for catching ball among the baseball fans. In doing "nut stuff" in "The Hoodooed Coon" he appeared to be right at home. "Shh! not so loud!" His chief occupation in school is cutting classes.

FLORENCE M. GAFFEY

"Floss"

Born in Dorchester, Mass., October 16, 1902. Graduate of the Belcher Grammar School. She is noted for living the life of Reilly and her chief occupation is absorbing knowledge.

ANNA CATHERINE GOOD

"Goodie"

Born in Randolph, Mass., October 15, 1903. Graduate of the Prescott Grammar School. Plays the piano and was a chorus girl in "The Hoodooed Coon." She is the class baby as far as size is concerned, but good things come in small packages. Her chief characteristic is sitting on her foot and her Waterloo is Latin.

ROBERT ISAAC

"Bobby"

Born in South Boston, October 14, 1902. Graduate of Prescott Grammar School. We cannot tell much about this youth because of his unusually quiet manner we merely state that his favorite pastime is eating pie. We hope to know more about him some time in the future when he becomes leader of the boy scouts.

OLGA LUNDBERG

Born in Brooklyn, N. Y., April 27, 1902. Graduate of the Lewis School, Public School No. 140 in Brooklyn, N. Y. A famous actress in the cast of a Japanese and Fairy play and "The Hoodooed Coon." As a Bolshevik in the latter no "Red" in the U. S. could compete with her. You should see her blush and hear her debate in order to fully appreciate this New Yorker.

JOHN J. LYNCH

"Lynchie"

Born in Randolph, Mass., December 1, 1902. Graduate of Prescott Grammar School. Plays the Piccolo in the S. H. S. orchestra. Another one of our actors who has taken part in two plays, "The Hurdy-Gurdy Girl" and "The Hoodooed Coon." He made a splendid farmer in the latter because he was so well adapted to chewing gum. He is also a good athlete. Besides these numerous talents he is assistant postmaster in the Randolph Post-office.

THE STETSON ORACLE

ANNA M. LYONS

"Skippy"

Born in Randolph, Mass., April 30, 1902. Graduate of the Belcher Grammar School. Plays the piano and is a basket-ball player. Was captain of the girls' team. As the "Newly Wed" in "The Hoodooed Coon" she played her part to perfection. Her favorite expression is "I know it" and her ambition is to go to college.

CATHERINE McGAUGHEY

"Kid"

Born in Randolph, Mass., July 21, 1903. Graduate of the Prescott Grammar School. She plays the piano and you should see her dance. In "The Hoodooed Coon" she won her popularity by "tripping the light fantastic." Her nick-name betrays her—we do hope she will grow up and get more sensible some day.

ALICE MARY O'BRIEN

"Red"

Born in Randolph, Mass., August 20, 1902. Graduate of Prescott Grammar School. She plays the banjo and tennis. As the slangy waitress in "The Hoodooed Coon" she was a sketch and seemed to thoroughly enjoy playing the part of a "Jazz Baby." We wonder why? She is noted for making trouble and her chief occupation in school is starting an argument.

RAYMOND JOSEPH PURCELL

"Ray"

Born in Randolph, Mass., August 23, 1902. Graduate of Prescott Grammar School. He made a fine ticket seller in "The Hoodooed Coon" and enjoyed himself immensely when jazzing with the waitress. His favorite expression is "For Goodness Sakes." Although he has many worthy competitors, yet none can surpass him in the art of gum chewing. His chief occupation in school is looking wise and his ambition in life is to be a dish-washer in the corner drug store.

MARGARET ELIZABETH RANDALL

"Beth"

Born in Randolph, Mass., June 7, 1903. Graduate of Prescott Grammar School. Such a perfectly proper Old Maid was she in "The Hoodooed Coon" "Always in Trouble" was right! Her favorite pastime is walking and her chief ambition in life is to be a cook.

FRANCIS McLEAN RUDDERHAM

"Ruddy"

Born in Randolph, Mass., June 19, 1903. Graduate of Prescott Grammar School. Plays on the piano in S. H. S. orchestra. He is also a baseball player. Yes, and he was the hero in "The Hoodooed Coon." People will never forget the wonderful coon he made. In this he showed to perfection his good disposition which is characteristic of him. This good quality is also displayed in school by his willingness to do anything from answering the doorbell to exploring the attic.

ELDON DRAKE TABER

"Jakey"

Born in Randolph, Mass., November 6, 1902. Graduate of the Belcher Grammar School. Plays on the baseball team. As the Millionaire's Son in "The Hoodooed Coon" you should have seen him make the ladies fall for him. How experienced he seems along this line! That smile of his is what does it. His ability as a pest and the fact that he drives a Ford tend to make him exceedingly popular.

MARION GENEVIEVE TOOMEY

Born in Randolph, Mass., July 13, 1903. Graduate of Prescott Grammar School. Plays the piano and was a chorus girl in "The Hoodooed Coon." Her chief occupation in school is whispering and flunking exams.

STETSON HIGH BASEBALL TEAM, 1920

THE STETSON ORACLE

- ROSELLA ANDERSON: "She is pretty to walk with, and witty to talk with, and pleasant too, to think on.
- MILDRED BAILEY: "Better be dead than out of fashion."
- FRANCIS BELCHER: "He could raise scruples dark and nice,
And after solve them in a thrice"
- ARTHUR CRIMMINS: "We do not what we ought, what we ought not we do, and lean upon the thought that chance will bring us through."
- DANIEL DONOVAN: "His smile is sweetened by his gravity."
- MAURICE ELLIOTT: "Books cannot always please, however good; minds are not always craving for their food."
- FLORENCE GAFFEY: "Eyes too expressive to be blue, too lovely to be grey."
- ANNA GOOD: "Oh, blest with temper whose unclouded ray
Can make tomorrow cheerful as today."
- ROBERT ISAAC: "Men of few words are the best men."
- OLGA LUNDBERG: "If to her share some female errors fall, Look on her face and you'll forget them all."
- JOHN LYNCH: "Words are like leaves, and where they most abound, Much fruit of sense beneath is rarely found."
- ANNA LYONS: "My lord, you know what Virgil sings--- Woman is various and most mutable."
- CATHERINE McGAUGHEY: "Or light or dark, or short or tall,
She sets a spring to snare them all.
All's one to her, above her fan,
She'd make sweet eyes at Caliban."
- ALICE O'BRIEN: "Sport that wrinkled care derides,
And laughter holding both her sides
Come and trip it as you go
On the light, fantastic toe."
- RAYMOND PURCELL: "I laugh, for hope hath happy place with me;
If my bark sinks, 'tis to another sea."
- ELIZABETH RANDALL: "We may live without friends, we may live without books,
But civilized man cannot live without cooks."
- FRANCIS RÜDDERHAM: "As long liveth the merry man, they say,
As doth the sorry man—and longer by a day."
- ELDON TABER: "My only books are woman's looks."
- MARION TOOMEY: "Absence of occupation is not rest."
